

Hold onto your hats! It's another busy spring at your library!

We've got our annual spring fundraising concert, a new Art Corridor exhibit, our second Open Mic afternoon, another great topic for the Lecture Series, a Film Club matinee, children's programs galore, the creation of our annual Poet-tree, the annual Easter Egg Hunt, the resumption of our Saturday Spanish language learning conversation group, on-going meetups for our Monday morning Whatknots, the Tuesday morning Scrabble Club, Saturday afternoon French conversation group and ever expanding access to online resources—free with your library card!

We're pleased to be hosting Juno nominee Corin Raymond on Saturday April 6th in the ambiance of the library. It promises to be a great evening of story telling (with his critically acclaimed "Bookworm" as presented at the Vancouver Fringe Festival) followed by a full music set. During the intermission there will be the launch of a photo exhibit. In keeping with Corin's performance the "Every Picture Tells a Story" exhibit will bridge the story telling and music. The intermission also features wine and cheese.

Tickets are only $20 for this evening of stories, photography, music and wine & cheese. You can purchase tickets online (www.arnpriorlibrary.ca) or at the library where we accept cash, cheque and debit .

NOTE: The photographs will be on display in the Art Corridor for the remainder of the month of April.

We'll leave our concert chairs set up for Sunday April 7th when we host our second Share the Stage Open Mic! Doors open at 1:30; performer signup 1:45 and the music starts at 2pm. Everyone is welcome!

Encore!

There will be refreshments too!

April

is Poetry Month!

We're looking for book review haikus for our annual Poet-tree! Submit your poems to library@arnpriorlibrary.ca

Haiku

A Japanese poem of 17 syllables, in three lines of five, seven and five

Join the creative fun!

Easter is just around the corner and you're invited to our annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday April 20th beginning at 10am.

1000 beautiful paper eggs will be hidden throughout the library. Redeem the paper eggs for chocolates! (maximum 10/child so there's enough for everyone!)

Holiday Hours

The library will be closed on Good Friday (April 19) and Easter Monday (April 22).

We will be open for regular Saturday hours 10am to 5pm on April 20th

Billed as a biography, comedy, drama, we'll be screening Vice on Wednesday April 24th. It's the story of Dick Cheney, an unassuming bureaucratic Washington insider, who quietly wielded immense power as Vice President to George W. Bush, reshaping the country and the globe in ways that we still feel today. Doors open at 12:30. Movie starts at 1pm. Runtime is 2 hours 12 minutes. Admission is by donation and there will be refreshments too! To help with our setup plans, please RSVP your seat on our website.

If fine cinema is your interest, you will want to explore Kanopy. It's a new resource available for free with your library card. You can register at www.arnpriorlibrary.kanopy.com

To sign up, create an account and set your own password. Kanopy will send you an email so they can verify your library card number and your library card pin (the default is your last name, first letter capitalized) Please call the library if you encounter any difficulties with this step.

You'll want to mark your calendar for the next installment of our popular lecture series. Attend this free lecture to learn about the practical issues you need to consider when planning your will and powers of attorney. A range of topics will be covered to ensure your needs and the needs of your beneficiaries are met. Remember: "Failing to Plan is Planning to Fail".

After your account has been set up, you will be able to watch up to 7 films each month for free. You can download the app and stream on a variety of devices. There are more than 30,000 films including documentaries, award winners, series and even a children's portal.

Jacqueline Asselin
Where there's a will, there's a way! Thursday April 25

If you need assistance with this or any of our other online services, we offer one-on-one technical assistance or IT training. Please call the library to book your time! 613-623-2279.

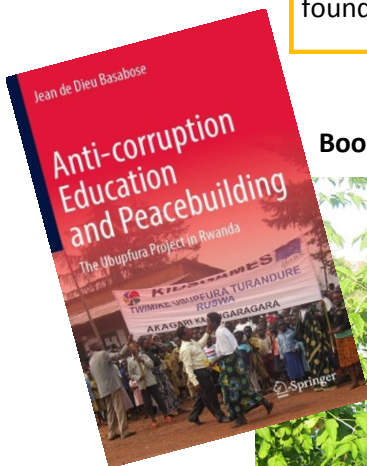

We're delighted the library has been selected as one of 6 locations for this summer's roaming art installation - Pop Up Art Renfrew County.

Pop Up Art will feature a curated exhibition called Extra-Ordinary Renfrew County. The exhibition will be a multi-artist and multimedia exhibit exploring how the extraordinary can be found in our everyday lives in Renfrew County.

From June 13 to 30 we'll make way for this exhibit right in the middle of the main library. There will be a grand opening on June 13th so mark your calendars for an evening of fun!

For more information about this county-wide initiative, please visit their website: <https://ov-caos.org/>

Book Launch May 1, 2019

The Canadian Peace Initiative in cooperation with the Library is pleased to host Jean de Dieu Basabose at 6pm on Wednesday May 1st in the lower level café.

Following the book launch, a reception and information session on Canadian Peace Initiative will follow.

Jean is a Rwandan Peacebuilder currently residing in Arnprior. Everyone is welcome to attend.